Purpose

The purpose of this policy is to outline the process for appealing a student’s dismissal from an academic program.

Policy Details

If a student is denied continuation in a program, the student must be informed in writing of the reason for termination from the program, the procedures for appeal, and informed of the potential financial liability for tuition and fees if an appeal is unsuccessful. A written request by the student to the Dean for an appeal must be filed within five (5) business days after receipt of the written notification of the dismissal. Under UTHSC Policy SA112, a student wishing to attend classes during the appeal must notify the Dean within two (2) business days of receipt of the written notification of dismissal.

When an appeal is requested, the Dean will assemble an ad hoc appeals committee from the graduate faculty, and may include a student member. The ad hoc appeals committee will review the recommendation of the student’s Faculty Committee (or equivalent), and will consider any new information that the student wishes to provide. During the appeal process, the student and the program should separately present pertinent written and oral documentation. The ad hoc appeals committee may also solicit additional statements, as they deem necessary. For their presentation, the student may bring any person(s), excluding legal counsel, whom the student feels can contribute to the presentation. The appeal is conducted without the presence of legal counsel. Confidential records will be kept of all proceedings.

The appeals committee will make a recommendation to the Dean or designee who will then make a decision and communicate this decision in writing to the student within ten (10) business days, excluding holidays and administrative closings. The decision of the Dean regarding a dismissal appeal is final. A student whose appeal is not successful will be withdrawn on the date of the Dean’s dismissal letter.
A student whose appeal is unsuccessful retains the right to request reinstatement by the Chancellor and President under UTHSC Policy SA112.

Policy Scope

Applies to all enrolled students and students on approved leave.
